THE INSIDE STORY BY SALLY ACTON

Today's Opening Hymn, "All People That On Earth Do Dwell", is one of the oldest and most enduring English hymns in Christian history. The hymn was written in the late 1550s by William Kethe. The lyrics directly translate the biblical themes of Psalm 100. It calls all humanity to praise God with joy and to recognize His eternal mercy and faithfulness. It was brought to the Americas by early settlers and Pilgrims.

Between delicious food and great fellowship, the Gals & Guys Lunch Bunch enjoyed another wonderful gathering at The Paddock Pub, sharing stories, catching up, and enjoying each other's company. Our excellent waitress, who teaches 4th grade, fit right in with the group, sharing some of her classroom humor and adding a few extra laughs to an already enjoyable afternoon.
